

2019 200 Hour Teacher Training FAQ

What is a 200 Hour Yoga Teacher Training?

This form of YTT is the first step in becoming a certified yoga instructor. It is a training where you will accumulate 200 hours over a 4 month period and once graduated, will be provided with a certificate of completion. This certificate allows you to teach at gyms, yoga schools, and more.

How are these 200 hours broken down?

You will accumulate these 200 hours by attending the required TT sessions, attending at least 2 yoga classes each week (48 hours), workshops, homework, Karma Yogi programs, and class observations.

When does the training begin and how long does it run for?

Training begins in September and ends in December.

What days will we meet?

Training will begin on September 7th and we will meet every weekend from that point on. We may also meet one night during the week depending on hours/student availability.

What will we learn?

By the end of this training you will have the knowledge and confidence to lead a 60-75 minute yoga class. You will not only learn the breakdown of common yoga poses (asanas) in several styles, but will also learn about the Yamas & Niyamas, The Gita, the Chakras, sanskrit, meditation, and more.

What are the required books?

You Are A Badass by Jen Sincero
The Yamas & The Niyamas by Deborah Adele
Yoga Anatomy (1&2) by Leslie Kaminoff
The Bhagavad Gita - Any Author

Who will teach us?

Alyssa will be your lead instructor, however, to keep the importance of community strong, Alyssa invites the teachers of Alma and her teachers/mentors to participate in the training by bringing their knowledge to the table. These instructors will join us during training hours.

What will I have to do in order to graduate?

Each trainee will be required to teach a well designed 60 minute class to Alyssa and their fellow trainees that incorporates several styles of yoga, a dharma talk, hands on assists, and a meditation/savasana. You will know immediately if you passed or failed. You will also be given a written exam towards the end of training that will combine questions from quizzes given throughout the training. If you fail the exam, you will be required to retake the exam before you teach your final class.

What happens if I fail?

Alyssa will do everything in her power to make sure this doesn't happen, but in the event that you fail, you will be given the option to retake the training at a 50% discount.

Am I guaranteed employment after I graduate?

Alma offers all of their graduates the opportunity to teach their "New Teacher Feature" class on Sundays. All graduates who wish to participate will be placed on a rotating schedule.

Will we be certified through Yoga Alliance?

Yes
